Stalk Me

Keatyn's life is like a movie. It's following the script she wrote for the perfect high school experience. She goes to the best parties, dates the hottest guy, and sits at the most coveted lunch table. But really, things aren't all that perfect. Her boyfriend gets drunk at every party, and her best friend is threatening to tell everyone her relationship is a sham. Deep down, she isn't sure if she has any true friends. Except for Brooklyn—her surfing buddy and longtime crush. He understands both sides of her. The popular girl. The surfer girl. Even though her friends say it can't be done, Keatyn decides to write a new script for her life. One where she stays popular and dates the surfer boy who has her heart. But Keatyn's life is interrupted when a threatening note is found in her little sister's backpack from a stalker obsessed with her movie-star mom. And when he gets dangerously close to Keatyn, it won't matter who she is or what she's scripted. Because popular girl or surfer girl, the pretty girl always ends up dead. At least, they do in the movies.

Get Me

Keatyn's crazy life comes together in one perfect script. Will Keatyn get her life back? And if she does, which life and boy will she choose? Keatyn's life is like a movie, and her crazy life seems to be coming together in one perfect script. The kind where she is reunited with her family. Where she gets her life back. And where she decides which of her loves is the boy of her dreams. Her moon boy. Popular girl or surfer girl, Keatyn doesn't really care anymore. She just wants to be happy. The only problem is, Vincent has a completely different kind of script in mind. The kind where he plays the role of the boy of her dreams. The kind where they will be on their beach. Together forever. And possibly dead. Cut. The end. Roll credits.

Adore Me

Keatyn's finally become the kind of girl her little sisters can look up to—except for the lies. Lying to her friends is killing her. The longer she's at Eastbrooke and the closer she gets to her friends, the more she feels like she's being eaten from the inside out. She knows that if she goes back to school, she'll end up as nothing but a shell. So, she decides not to go back. Keatyn's going to St. Croix by herself. And for the first time in her life, she's okay with that. Except ... she doesn't actually end up on the island alone. And she could write an epic movie script about it.

That Boy

You know, being friends with two cute boys does have its benefits. There's Danny. Danny is a golden boy in every way. He has dreamy blue eyes and blonde hair that always looks perfect, even when it's windblown or been stuck under a football helmet. He's the boy every girl crushes on. The boy I get into trouble with, the boy I fight with, the hot quarterback no girl can resist. Being with Danny is like being on an adventure. He has a bright, contagious smile and abs to die for. Equally crush worthy is Phillip. Adorable, sweet Phillip, who I have known since birth. Phillip has dark hair, a perfect smile, brown eyes, and the sexiest voice I have ever heard. He's the boy I talk to every night before I go to sleep. The boy who rescues me, the boy who can read my mind, the boy who is always there for me, the boy who tries to keep me out of trouble, the boy who irritatingly keeps getting hotter, and whose strong arms always seem to find their way around me. And when he gives me that grin, I can never say no. One boy will give me my very first kiss. One boy will teach me to make out. One boy will take me to prom. And finally, one boy will ask me to marry him. They will both be my best friends. But only one of them will be the boy I fall in love with. Only one of them is That Boy.

Kiss Me
Keatyn has always written scripts for her perfect life, but there's no way she could have ever scripted this. Her life is so far from perfect that it's not even funny—all because of a stalker. Now, she's at a boarding school, where she has to lie about who she is. She can't see her family or Brooklyn. She's tutoring a hottie god who tortures her with his smile. And the most popular girl already hates her. But there's this boy. This sweet, adorable East Coast boy who likes Keatyn for who she is. So she decides to stop scripting her life and just live it. Because who knows how long she has left.

Love Me

Keatyn's mom says you can't love someone until you learn to love yourself. So, even though Vincent is getting more and more scary and doing a nationwide search for her, Keatyn vows to try to love herself and worry a little less about boys. But there are so many cute ones to choose from ... Dawson—the gorgeous boy who made a mistake but whose molten-lava kisses and steaminess she can't freaking resist. Aiden—the god of all hotties who is practically infused with love potion. Who she thought liked her but now says he wants to be her friend. Brooklyn—the boy who first stole her heart and has always loved her ... well, until the whole cabana incident with another girl. And what about Cooper Steele? The new soccer-coaching, health-teaching, tattooed hottie who was sent to guard Keatyn's body. What's a girl to do?

Hate Me

Keatyn was told if she went away, the stalker would forget about her, lose interest, and move on. But he hasn't. In fact, her being gone has only made things worse for her family and friends. So, it's time to take matters into her own hands. It's time for her to start fighting back. Hey, Vincent. You ready for a little chaos? Because Keatyn has written a whole new script—just for you.
